∵ Perhaps the most daring feat performed by anyone during the Siege of Sebastopol was that of Boatswain John Shepherd. On the night of July 15th he proceeded alone with an exploding apparatus from the end of Careening Bay, with a view to blowing up a Russian line-of-battle ship. He got some distance, but was obliged by the continuous stream of boats crossing the harbour, to return. He had, however, actually passed the Russian steamers at the entrance of Careening Bay. A second attempt was made with equal gallantry on August 4, and attended by similar want of success. From the Gaskell Collection.

PRICED CATALOGUES

of Coins and Medals.

AFTER each sale these catalogues are issued with the prices realised printed in the margin opposite each lot, thus giving at a glance a reliable guide to values.

The final test of value must always be auction prices rather than the figures given in books of reference for changing times and fashions soon render the latter obsolete and misleading.

On the average we issue twelve Coin and Medal catalogues a year, some of which are usually of sales of important collections. The priced catalogues are posted to subscribers as soon as ready, usually about a week after the date of sale and the subscription is . . . .
